The Bells Are Ringing For Me And My Gal... By E. Leslie, E. R. Goetz & G.W. Meyer

The bells are ringing for me and my gal – the birds are singing- for me and my gal, ev'ry body's been knowing- to a wedding they're going- & for weeks they've been sewing- ev'ry susie & sal- They're congregating- for me and my gal – the parson's waiting- for me and my gal – and someday – we're gonna build a little home for 2 or 3 or 4 – or more – in loveland – for me and my gal.

Silver Bells... By J. Livingston & R. Evans

Whatever happens or what may be – here is what Xmas time means to me – City sidewalks, busy sidewalks, dressed in holiday style. In the air there's a feeling of Xmas, children laughing, people passing, meeting smile after smile and on ev'ry street corner you'll hear:

Chorus: Silver bells, silver bells – it's Xmas time in the city, ring-a-ling, hear them ring, soon it will be Xmas day!

Strings of street lights, even stop lights – blink a bright red and green as the shoppers rush home with their treasures, hear the snow crunch, see the kids bunch, this is Santa's big scene, and above all the bustle you hear – Chorus

The Parish Bells: Joy To The World, O Come All Ye Faithful, Hark The Herald Angels Sing, Fred Oldfield
